Participants

Delegates from European Health ministries, from European Pharmacy Associations and invited guests.

Scope and purpose

Medication can be safer and offer more value to public health if pharmacists take more responsibility in the area of noncommunicable diseases.

This statement invites participants to discuss and create Pharmacy Practice 2020.

With this conference we will focus on ways to improve efficacy, patient safety and costs, and demonstrate the value of pharmacists' contribution to a better health for patients.
